

THE LAST ANTELOPE.

He stood upon the valley's edge, the last of all his race,
And looked from off the flowery ledge upon
Earth's changing face.

Where, where the groves of yucca palm, his trials of noon to shield?
Where, where the wild waste's endless charm?
Turned into grove and field.

Gone was the shimmering, sandy plain which
once before him rolled.
He looked about, but here was vain. His little heart grew cold.

Before him, to the right and left, loomed
hills, heath, moor,
He turned and fled, like one bereft, into
the little again.

Break, timid heart! Your day is done. You have seen your name.
The power that this year you have won
is a whole wide earth can tame.

This "valley of the antelope," where you
and yours could rove,
Now lies with his an' all hope and
hurry joy and love.

—Jennie Post in "Land of Sunshine."

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

—The Alumni will be entertained at their meeting this evening at Bristol high school assembly room by the Association's Amateur Dramatic company.

—The marriage of Dr. Joseph de Banno-
ville Abbott to Miss Helen Shawell Kohn,
both of Bristol, is announced to take place
on next Thursday at noon.

—A party of five or six Christians departed for the old regions on last Tuesday morning, in search of rabbits. The services of a local photographer were engaged for Saturday morning to photograph the game
which it is their expectation to bring home.

—Captain William G. aged 61 years and for many years a captain and pilot on the tow boat Delaware, of the Delaware Division Canal Company, died at Newtown yesterday.
His body was taken to Bristol for interment.
The funeral will take place from the residence of his son-in-law, George Loudenbough on Bath street.

—On Sunday next, November 14, Bishop Wilkinson will make his annual visitation of Bristol parish. At the close of Evensong he will administer the Apostolic "laying-on-of-hands," with prayer, such persons as may be present, before him for confirmation; after which he will deliver the sermon. All who desire to attend the services at St. James'
for worship on this occasion will be welcomed. The special offering will be made for the "Bishop's Charity Fund."

—The date of the lecture of Miss Vandellia Varnum, of New York, has been fixed for Tuesday evening, November 20th, and her subject "Who Pays the Freight?" The lecture will be delivered under the auspices of the Alumni Association in the Assembly room of the High School Building. The press generally, lecture committees, presidents of colleges, superintendents of schools
and many others unite in recommending Miss Varnum as a brilliant and charming lecturer.

—Bristol Castle, No. 409, Knights of the Golden Eagle, will give a public smoker in their large room on next Tuesday evening.
The exercises of the Castle will be opened earlier on that evening to enable the completion of the programme of the entertainment to be given for the enjoyment of the Knights and their invited friends. The commissary will go through all the maneuvers of their drill. The installation of all the newly-elected officers of the different castles in this district will be performed by Bristol's Commandary at the Bristol Castle
the first part of January. The Bristol Castle also intends giving a chicken dinner on the 11th of December just for the Knights themselves.

—A congregational meeting of the members of the Presbyterian Church was held in the lecture room of the church on last Monday evening for the purpose of ascertaining
the wish of the congregation relative to the selection of Rev. Mr. Leland for their pastor. Rev. S. K. Polk, of Edgington, was the moderator. The result of the vote taken was that the congregation were not yet ready for a choice. It was decided at this meeting that ministers would be called to occupy the pulpit for one or more Sundays
and congregational meetings be called to ascertain the wish of the members immediately after the departure of each minister. By this method the congregation will be called to vote upon only one person at a time. Rev.
D. R. Warne, of Kingston, will occupy the pulpit for the next two Sundays.

—American Hosiery, Hook & Ladder Co. No.
2, participated in the Inter-State Volunteer Firemen's Carnival held at Trenton yesterday afternoon. The company took the Liberty Cornet Band along with them to furnish them with their own music. In the parade the company had 60 men on the ropes pulling their new ball bearing carriage, which was one of the finest and was certainly the brightest of the many carriages in line. Every company participating in the carnival was given a large handsome decorated punch bowl. Bristol's Company was the only one to compete for the prize in the hose laying contest. The run was made on West Hanover street, at a distance of two city blocks to a plug, and the laying of two sections of hose. Water was obtained at the nozzle of the hose in the incredibly short time of 64 seconds. The street was roped off to give the company a clear way.
The prize secured by a handsome jar-
diner and tabouret, very nearly a yard high,
made of a fine quality of Trenton ware
valued at $35.00. A large crowd of Bristolians went to Trenton to see the event.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—In spite of the sensational papers of New York this country has not yet gone to war with Spain. That country probably had a nervous chill after gazing on the warlike front of the yellow journals, and realizes that besides having to engage the navy of America it would have to combat the entire reputorial force of these New York morning papers, and run the risk of having her
prisoners liberated by high priced space writers.

—The despised Indian is fast becoming the most enlightened of all the races. Little Hudson, of the Catholic School, in the recent football game with the University of Pennsylvania kicked two goals from the field.
Yale, Harvard and Princeton possess such preponderance of intellect.

—Tumult is abroad in the land upon pleasure bent. Everything except that which bears the tiger brand has had to go back to work.

—A Boston couple were recently married in a den of lions. Three or four ministers were on hand in case one should be eaten
up the other could take his place and the programme not be disturbed. Of course the lions would not have the nerve to tackle the bride. Next in order will be for some
up-to-date chap insisting that his funeral ceremony shall be conducted with the aid of a limousine and parachute jump.

—Democratic papers of the State are trying wittily to keep the Quay and Martin elections antagonistic. They see what a divided Republican force did for the Democrats in New York, and they would like something of the same order in this state.

—The new woman is making rapid strides towards perfection. Five female shirtmakers were arrested and held in $1000 bail each in Philadelphia last Monday for interfering with and intimidating non-union employees.

—The voracious appetite of the modern trust is never appeased, but is constantly on the watch for something new to devour.
There has been a new combination of capital
formed for the purpose of gaining possession of the Utah asphaltum beds, said to be the most valuable in the world.

—The other day in New York City, George Francis Train, while talking to a crowd said that Henry George was poisoned; that "Dick" Crucker would be dead inside of sixty days; that there were fifteen miles of far-
ways track on the New York Central Railroad than at Garrison's where the accident occurred, and that he had defeated Mark Hannan in Ohio. If George Francis goes on in a strain like that people will begin to think that he is a little unsound.

—The United States Supreme Court has denied the appeal of Theodore Durrant, and he will now have to hang. Justice has been too long suspended in this case.

—Colonel Henry Watterson, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, in the recent Kentucky
election, fought up to the last hour for Gold Democracy. His candidate was completely overwhelmed, and now he announces that he will drop from the head of the gold to the rear of the silver column. He will cease to take the lead in the councils of his party in that state as they have declared for national disunion and repudiation, but being a Democrat and a believer in free trade and home
rule he will follow in the ranks as a common soldier. In plain English he is trying to get in out of the wet.

—One of the greatest sensations of the age
has been revealed. A newspaper editor died leaving a fortune. The Philadelphia Press' New York correspondent says that Charles A. Dana left over $1,000,000 worth of unencumbered property, most of all of which came from the appreciation in value of the "Sun's" stock.

—Spain nearly broke her neck to let the United States know that she is seeking no
pretext for war with this country, and that she is animated by most friendly sentiments,
etc. She wants to be careful though, or we will sink another magazine and two or three
New York morning papers on her.

Upon several occasions effort has been made to secure the large and commodious
assembly room of the new high school building for the purpose of holding meetings, entertainments, etc., as Bristol is somewhat short on public halls. But ingenuity, of the Bristol brand, has never succeeded in relaxing the grip of the School Board. Oratory and passionate argument availed not.
But what the brains of Bristol could not gain was "sleazebag" for an itinerant fakir.
Last week a needy individual drifted into town, and being desirous of obtaining a little cash for necessary repairs, of various kinds, put his wits to work on full time.
Eventually he called upon members of the School Board and obtained permission to have use of the cherished hall to give a lesson in "physical culture" to the children;
teach them how to march without bringing
their heels down with too much force, etc.
He visited the various schools and told the children to bring a penny on the stated date
and receive the promised training in physical culture. The time came and the hall was full. With true dignity and grace the individual stepped upon the stage, the first pass being to kick an imaginary dog, which accordingly set up a dreadful howling and yelping, much to the delight of the children.
The next number on the programme was an exposition of feats of legerdemain. The Board is very "mum" on the subject, but it is said that before one of the members arrives upon
the scene and breaks up the show, the "Wandering Willie" had taught the young
idea how to swallow swords, nurse red hot pokers, etc., with true Delatree grace.

—The results of the recent election show
a peculiar state in Democratic affairs. Bryan has always labored specially with the farmers and from them expected the best returns. The opposite has been the case.
What gains the Democrats made have been in the cities while the Republicans have been victorious in the farming districts.

BRISTOL CHURCHES.

St. Paul's Mission.

Church fights are like thunder storms,
they originate frequently in a multiplicity
of small indefinite causes and finally burst
with a crash and a glare and resultant shock
to the astonishment of the beholders, and about all that can be said of the matter is that it happened. Such an occurrence took place in St. James' Episcopal Parish of Bristol in 1885, and the result was the establishment of St. Paul's Mission under the leadership of a number of those who had been the most prominent of the workers in the old parish.
The Mission began in November 1885 with nothing at all but a belief on the part of the leaders that they were right and with hope for the future. For a number of years the

That active little bird, usually known as the "political bee," has found a resting place in the "top dressing" of a pair of Bristol's statements. This tuncful midge is of the legislative variety and has been swarmed by George W. Strauss and the irrepressible "Dicks" Smith, both good men, under proper conditions. In consideration of the recent decision of Judge Yeckes, Bristol should see to it that no representative is sent to the Legislature who will not pledge himself to work unceasingly to secure needed trolley legislation. Under the ruling of the court, the Philadelphia and Bristol trolley cannot enter the borough until the existing law is changed, and the citizens of Bristol should see to it that no one shall represent this district who will not pledge
his aid to accomplish the desired end.
Messrs. Strauss and Smith, therefore,
should declare themselves.

—The Mayor of Reading wants no theatrical performance in his modest city which presents young ladies before the audience dressed in flesh colored tights. Any other old color will do.

Council met in regular session on last Monday evening.

There were present: W. Frank Scull,
President; Fred F. Collier, Owen Evans,
Anthony K. Joyce, M. McCarty, Samuel
Milner, Engle G. Smith, Thomas Scott, F.
Byers, John F. Whitely and James Wright.

A communication from Burgess Johnson
relative to the damage of the canal boat J.
S. Smith, occasioned by the swinging bridge being out of repair, and accompanied by a letter and bill from the owners, was presented.

The Finance committee reported adversely
to the proposition to compel transient
merchants to obtain licenses to do business in the borough; that aliens were liable for borough tax according to opinion of corporation counsel, in favor of the request of collectors of the 1896 and of the 1897 delinquent
taxes for one month's extension of time.
The report was received and ordered filed.

The Police committee reported a new ordinance regulating the riding of bicycles
in the borough; that 10 arrests had been made during the month, and that 77 transients had been lodged in the station house.
The report was received and filed.

The Fire committee reported the purchase of 400 feet of fire hose; that it had been tested and found satisfactory, and that a branch pipe and shut-off nozzles had been ordered for No. 1 Company. The report was received and filed.

The request of Henry Rue, Collector, to have the final settlement of duplicate of 1896 postponed until the December meeting was granted.

The bond of Edward M. Peirce conditioned
for faithful performance in macadamizing
Cedar street was accepted and sureties approved.

The matter of framing an ordinance providing for the taxation of transient merchants
was laid on the table.

The bicycle ordinance was taken up. After its first reading the rules were suspended
and the ordinance was adopted by a unanimous vote. The ordinance in full will be found in the advertising columns in to-day's GAZETTE.

On motion Charles Saxton, collector of the delinquent taxes for 1897, was given until the December meeting to make final settlement.

The treasurer stated that he had received from Collector Saxton delinquent taxes amounting to $2299.16. A number of remits
were made and warrants directed to be issued for delinquent tax-payers.

A petition for an electric light at Pond and Carpenter street was referred to the Street
committee with power.

A bill from the B. & S. Transportation line for $5.28, amount of damages to the boat J. H. Smith, was referred to the Street
committee to report at the next meeting.

Councilman Collier called for the reading of the ordinance regulating the water of building, repairing or altering buildings.

On motion the Street committee was instructed to have Market street light repaired.

The following bills were presented, read
and passed:

S. A. Whitaker, groceries for poor, $ 3 00
S. A. Wilson, M. D., medical relief, 5 00
W. G. Albright, collection of garbage, 30 00
Electric Light Co., lights for streets, 254 14
Hooker & Roberts, crushed stone, 175 63
Charles Saxton, commission on taxes collected, 300 00

Street Commissioner, pay roll for insurance, 202 96
Salaries of police officers, 323 00
Extra police salary, 11 50
Charles Saxton, police supplies, 8 00
L. L. DeVoe, repairing and cleaning police clothing, 6 50
Robert Clark, repairing chairs at police station, 1 00
T. A. Muschert, relief order, 1 00
A. R. Groven, M. D., medical attendance on poor, 20 00
B. J. Groven, M. D., medical attendance on poor, 5 00
Revere Rubber Co., 400 ft. fire hose, 260 00
Henry Gould & Son, repairs for fire
steamer, 88 32

Council then adjourned.

Football at the Driving Park.
Bristol Fire Co. No. 1's football team played a picked eleven at the Driving Park on last Saturday afternoon. It was a hotly contested game and a great many fine plays
were made and the customary battle scars
were received by some of the contestants,
but no wounds of a serious nature were received by them. The only point scored was a touchdown made by Fred Nevegold.
There was a good attendance at the park.
Following is the line up:—

FRONT NO. 1. Positions. PICKED ELEVEN.
Lyndall right end Downing Nevegold right tackle Evans
Doan right guard Stackhouse
Scott left guard Skell
Thacker left center Skell
Lovett left tackle Skell
Fenton left end Riley
Marshall quarter-back Head
Bancroft right half-back Dorrance
Bauders left half-back Swain
Lorimer full-back Johnson

Referee—Franklin Gilkeson.
Umpire—Moses Louden.
Line-men—Joe Swain and L. Clark.

—Rachel Twining, a well-known friend,
died at her residence at Trevoze, Friday, Nov. 5, in her 84th year. The deceased has over one hundred relatives in the county,
and joined the Wrightstown Meeting when she was 15 years of age.

BUCKS COUNTY LAWYERS FLOORED.

A Doylestown dispatch to the Philadelphia Ledger tells this tale of how a smooth young man succeeded in working a neat little scheme of $40,000 upon the brightest members of the Bucks County Bar:—

A swindler has been flooring the members of the local Bar. Yesterday a smooth-tongued young man visited the Register's Office here, with the story that he wished to prove the will of his mother, who died in Fairview district, Hilltown township, and wished to have some advice. Register Gulick gave the inquirer the names of a number of the local attorneys, and the first one he visited was ex-Congressman Robert M. Yardley. He gave Mr. Yardley a description of the estate, which he said amounted to about $13,000. He said his name was Jeremiah F. Howard; that he lived in Trenton, and he and a brother were co-executors, and that they would get together on Friday if Mr. Yardley would undertake the settlement of the estate. At that time he would be coming to the city

and Mr. Yardley a handsome-looking fellow. Just as he was leaving Mr. Howard remembered that he had ordered a prescription at the drug store and that he was $1.25
short, which he asked Mr. Yardley to loan him until Friday. This aroused the suspicion
of the attorney and he pulled out a quarter,
which Mr. Howard accepted with apology.
It appears that Howard then visited the law
offices of Webster Girm, Charles E. Myers, Henry Lear, Warren S. Long, Henry A.
James and others, with more or less success.
At the office of Henry S. Murfit, who had heard of Howard's doings, the swindler took flight and took a hurried leave for the depot and left town on the 6.07 train.
Howard was in Bristol a few days ago, and worked the same scheme on the law firm of
B. F. Gilkeson and W. S. Wright.

The Bucks County Historical Society is in a fair way to realize its long cherished desire to have a building of its own, wherein its
valuable papers and relics may be stored,
and where the student of history may pursue
his research and the public assemble to discuss local history.

The Society has decided to rely upon the generosity of the people and a subscription list has been opened with $20,000 already pledged. Every cent will be welcome, and as Henry C. Mercer, one of the leading members of the Society, has well said,
"What finer ideal of the consummation of such a project than that this building should spring from the hearts of all the people and
result from the contributions great or small,
of many rather than a few. As churches
have been built through the slight subscriptions of many givers, so these walls might well rise upon the generosity of those who could't afford to give greater sums than twenty-five cents or one dollar. They all might have a share in a work by and for the county, and feel that the structure in whose foundation no false stone had been placed
belonged to all, just as the collection representing Bucks county's past (just gathered and shown) belongs to the hearts of all
and expresses in a deep and true sense the life of every citizen of the county."

The election in Kansas last week clearly shows that Bryanism is the offspring of adversity and cannot thrive in the sunlight
of prosperity. There is no State in the Union in which the farmers have attained such measures of success and then been forced to utter depths of hopelessness. Year after year they have raised crops without being able to command a price for the product that would compensate the cultivation. In desperation the tiller of the soil was in the previous condition to regard and accept any plausible theory which promised to give him good returns for his wheat, and thus Populism flourished.

Kansas, from being the strongest Republican State in the Union, became the hot-bed
of free silver advocates, and in the face of the circumstances that could hardly be ensured. This year the farmer has abundant crops which were disposed of at prices far beyond his dreams and the country is literally flooded with money; mortgages have been cancelled and new land acquired; the banks are brimful of gold and the simon
pure Populist is receiving the fullest measure of Republican prosperity.

The erstwhile victim of the gold power
and monied aristocracy acknowledges that he has been chasing a wrong theory and doing
harm to a false prophet, and announces
through the election returns of last week
that he is convinced that the "crime of '73"
and the low price of wheat are not even second cousins.

In a State campaign, in which there was a very light vote polled and no canvass made to arouse enthusiasm, the Republicans carried the election by a majority of 15,000
votes, and that, too, against the combined
forces of the Democrats, Populists and silver Republicans.

The western farmer still wears his brains
under his hat.

—When completed, the sale of the Union Pacific Railroad will have paid back to the Government principal and interest at 6 per cent. This "investment" was made about thirty years ago, and how many investments
of that length of time could have panned out better? When the national advantages resulting from the construction of this road are considered, the investment on the part of the United States would not have been a bad
one if no part of the principal or interest had been repaid. It is probable, however, that the Democrats will continue to talk of the
"steal" that has been perpetrated.

ST. PAUL'S MISSION.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

St. Paul's Mission.

THE BIBLE INSTITUTE.

Second lecture on Friday evening, November 12th, 1897, on "The book of Genesis," Second period of man, from the fall to the deluge."

Chapters IV to VII.
ANALYSIS OF CHAPTER IV.
Cain and Abel.

(a) Their occupation, ver. 2.
(b) Their offerings, ver. 3-5.
(c) Cain's wrath, ver. 5-7.
(d) The murder of Abel, ver. 8.
(e) The punishment of Cain, ver. 9-15.

PRACTICAL LESSONS OF CHAPTER IV.
1. Preserve the best for God, ver. 4.
2. Sin lying at the door, ver. 7.
3. Are we our brother's keeper? ver. 9.
4. Hidden from the face of God, ver. 14.
5. Going out from the presence of God, ver. 16.

ANALYSIS OF CHAPTER V.
(a) The generations of Adam, ver. 1-32.
(b) Enoch, ver. 21-22.
(c) Methuselah, the eldest man, ver. 26-27.

PRACTICAL LESSONS OF CHAPTER V.
1. Walking with God, ver. 22.
2. A long life a useful life, ver. 27.

ANALYSIS OF CHAPTER VI.
The wickedness of man.
The building of the Ark.

(a) Man's wickedness, ver. 3-6.
(b) God's purpose to destroy man, ver. 7-13.
(c) The pattern of the Ark, ver. 14-15.
(d) The mode of destruction, ver. 17.
(e) God's covenant with Noah, ver. 18-21.

PRACTICAL LESSONS OF CHAPTER VI.
1. My Spirit shall not always strive with man, ver. 3.
2. Gifts of wickedness, ver. 4.
3. Evil thoughts and imagination, ver. 5.
4. The grief of the Divine heart, ver. 6.
5. Finding grace in God's sight, ver. 8.
6. The "Ark of Safety," ver. 14.
7. The Divine Pattern, ver. 15.
8. I, even I, ver. 17.
9. God's covenant with the righteous, ver. 18.
10. Noah's obedience, ver. 22.

ANALYSIS OF CHAPTER VII.
The deluge.

(a) Noah, his family and the living creatures
enter the ark, ver. 1-10.
(b) The flood upon the earth, ver. 11-20.
(c) Destruction of all living substance, ver.
21-23.

CENTRAL THOUGHTS OF CHAPTERS.
Ch. IV. Sin inherited. The righteous Abel.
Ch. V. God's judgment as shown in the flood and his mercy as shown through Noah.

A cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested in the study of the Bible to attend the lectures. The lectures are of any kind is made. Monthly examinations will be held for all who desire to work for diplomas, which will be awarded at the end of the course. As the analysis and practical lessons which are published weekly in the GAZETTE will be of indispensable service in these examinations, it is desirable that they should be clipped out of the paper and preserved. Book numbers of the paper,
also single copies may be obtained at the GAZETTE Office or at the church on the nights of the lecture. EDWARD A. BOOK, Pastor of First Baptist Church.

The Official Vote in Bucks.
Bucks county's vote for State and county
officers was as follows:

James S. Deacon, Rep., 6,224
M. E. Brown, Dem., 5,410

Deacon's plurality, 814
Altitude, 1,100
Levi G. McCauley, Rep., 6,499
Walter E. Ritter, Dem., 5,016

McCauley's plurality, 1,483
PROTHONOTARY.
Emil W. Haring, Rep., 6,503
William H. Banner, Dem., 5,111

Haring's plurality, 1,392
DISTRICT ATTORNEY.
John C. Swartley, Rep., 6,500

Watchmaker and Jeweler,
Cor. Mill and Wood Sts.,
BRISTOL, PA.

Has constantly on hand all the new designs in
Gold and Silver Watches,
Jewelry and Silverware,
Spectacles & Eyeglasses,
Black Enamel, Walnut and Oak Clocks.

 Particular attention given to Repairing Fine Watches, Clocks and Jewelry. All work done at home and warranted to give satisfaction.

TRUSSES

100

In Every Size
And Numerous Designs.

DR. PURSELL'S DRUG STORE.

HOGUET'S

Pioneer Drug Store!
Nos. 13 & 15 Mill (Main) Street, Bristol Pa.
The Oldest and Largest in Bucks County.
(ESTABLISHED IN 1844.)
By the present proprietor.
A large stock of first class
Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Toilet Articles
Soups, Brushes, Perfumery, Patent Medicines, Sponges, Chamois Skins, Paints, Oils, Glass, Putty, Varnishes, Dye Stuffs, Diamond Dyes, &c.
Also SPICES of all kinds. WARRANTED

Physicians' Prescriptions Accurately Com-

L. A. HOGUET
 Druggist and Pharmacists

---

DR. J. T. STRADLING
DENTIST,
 No. 21 Marker Street;
 Astol, Penna.

---

Farms & Houses
FOR SALE AND
TO RENT.
Rents and all Other Bills Collected.

EDW. N. BOOZ,
No. 10 Wood Street, Bristol, Pa.

Dr. C. E. King,
DENTIST,
202 Mill Street, Bristol

(Over Pursell's Drug Store.)

Sherman & Peirce,
BRISTOL, PA.
Lumber Yard
Fully stocked with all kinds of Building and Finished Lumber, both PINE AND HARDWOOD.
MILL WORK in variety, in cluding STAIRWAYS and
HARDWOOD INTERIOR
FINISH.

_____

Upholstering and Repairing

OF FURNITURE
of all kinds.

CARPETS beaten, sewed and laid. Window Shades, Awnings, Sily Covers, Mattresses
made over—hair thoroughly picked, feathers
renovated by steam.

Chairs Re-Caned.

Orders from the surrounding country will receive
my personal attention.

Chas. H. Ancker.

No. 109 Cedar St.,
BRISTOL, PA.

AN OFFICE WHERE
Everything in connection with
REAL ESTATE
IS CAREFULLY ATTENDED TO

You can buy a Property, have the deed drawn procure a loan on mortgage, get the building insured and the lot surveyed, the whole transaction completely and carefully attended to by one person, just as you would do it yourself, if you knew how.

A. Weir Gilkeson,

